HARMONY PRESBYTERIAL.

Most Interesting and Profitable Session Held Here.

Harmony presbyterial opened its tenth annual meeting at the Williamsburg Presbyterian church here. Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The opening services were conducted by the Rev George P Stevens, who gave an interesting talk on his work as a missionary to China.

In the afternoon Mr Stevens spoke again to the Men's Bible class, while Mrs J R Graham, missionary to China, spoke to the women and young people in the Sunday-school room. Mrs Graham is a speaker of wonderful earnestness and magnetism, and possesses a personality that makes a universal appeal. Mrs Graham was introduced by Mrs N Y Alford, president of Harmony presbyterial.

On Monday morning the business session of the presbyterial was opened at 10:30 with devotional exercises conducted by the Rev P S McChesney, pastor of the church.

Greetings were brought to the presbyterial from the Methodist missionary by Miss Amanda Edwards; from the Episcopal by Mrs P O Arrow-smith; from the Baptist by Mrs Rierner, and from the Presbyterian by Mrs L W Gilland. Mrs N Y Alford, in the absence of Mrs W L Brunson, responded in a few appropriate remarks to the addresses of welcome.

The regular business of the presbyterial was then taken up and continued until 1:30 o'clock, when the body adjourned to the Sunday-school room, where luncheon was served by the Kingstree society.

The afternoon session began at 3 o'clock, when Mrs Graham was again heard in a beautiful discourse on the efficacy of prayer.

Each session was well attended and highly enjoyed both by the visitors and home folk.

Special Meeting of Town Council

A special meeting of the town council was held yesterday afternoon for the purpose of drafting an ordinance governing the storage of gasoline and other combustible liquids in the town of Kingstree and prescribing the manner in which the same shall be stored and handled within its limits. The importance of such an ordinance was impressed most forcibly upon the citizens of the town and its officers by the burning last week of the storage house of the Gulf Refining Company when valuable nearby property was, for a time, seriously endangered, and would have been destroyed had the wind been blowing with greater force despite the present water system and the efficient work of our fire department. The ordinance which is now up for passage will prohibit the storage of gasoline within 500 yards of any residence or storehouse in a manner similar to the storage plant burned last week.

Board Makes Settlement.

The dispensary board of Williamsburg county met here Monday and made final settlement of the affairs of that institution, which went out of commission here December 24, 1915. MOUZON SCHOOL NOTES.

Mouzon, April 18:—One of the most interesting and prettiest entertainments of its kind ever enjoyed by the people of this community, was the closing exercises of the Mouzon school last Friday night. The stage, with its background of green and white, and vases of cut flowers, was lovely in its simplicity, while the acting and easy manner of every pupil, the different scenes and costumes represented did credit to the capable teacher, Miss May Folsom. Much credit is due also to Mrs Bennie Duke, who presided at the organ, with the assistance of Messrs Scott and Prevatte on the violin and guitar. It would be simply an impossible thing to decide which dialogue or tableau brought forth the greatest applause. The crowd was there to see and enjoy, and it was not disappointed. From Bethel, Workman and Lake City many friends came to hear and encourage our little band of faithful boys and girls. And they especially enjoyed the closing act, "The Mischievous Nigger," by Mr Ben Frierson. Even for the old folks, it "was good to be there." Here special mention should be made of the pantomime—"Nearer, My God, to Thee," the three white robed figures grouped in silent devotion in the dim light, while a male quartette sang the beautiful hymn behind a closed curtain. But more soul-stirring was the tableau—"Sweet Hour of Prayer." Three wee tots, in flowing robes, kneeling with uplifted eyes and clasped hands brought to our minds and hearts the words of the Master, "Of such is the kingdom of heaven."

W. S. Biel, Manager.

Tuesday afternoon Mr W S Biel of Charleston came to Kingstree upon invitation to confer with President W R Scott and other officers of the local baseball club relative to the management of the Kingstree team, and an agreement was entered into whereby Mr Biel is to become the team's manager. He will be in Kingstree June 1 to take charge. Mr Biel is a prominent baseball man and all-round athlete and at present is engaged as coacher of the Charleston College team.
